BERNON BECOT 2017 by Neal Martin – May 2018 - / 87-89

The 2017 Bernon Bécot has a tightly wound black cherry and raspberry coulis scented bouquet that needs more intensity but it is at least fresh and defined. The palate is medium-bodied with sappy black fruit laced with white pepper, good backbone in the mouth with commendable density on the finish. This is certainly one of the better wines from the appellation.

BERNON BECOT 2017 by Antonio Galloni – May 2018 - / 88-90

Super-ripe red cherry, plum, sweet oak and vanillin all flesh out in the 2017 Bernon Bécot. Racy and flamboyant to the core, the 2017 is decidedly extroverted in style, but it all works very nicely. The deep, pliant finish is incredibly inviting.
